

Table of Current Legislation

A table setting out the relevant utilities legislation and the notice provisions relating to access of utilities to roads is set out below.

Legislation	Relevant section	Parties that notice is required to be given to	Notice period for conditions/before works may commence
Telecommunications Act 2001	s136 (lines) s142(cabinets)	Road owner Road owner	20 working days from receipt 20 working days from receipt
Electricity Act 1992	s24/25	Road owner and owner of other utility works that might be affected	15 working days
Local Government Act 2002 (water services)	No express provision  14th Schedule to the 1974 Act (notice)	No notice required for works in local roads where Council owns road  Road owner and/or owner of another work only where this is not the Council	1 month for road owner/owner of another work to object
Gas Act 1992	s25/26	Road owner and owner of other utility works that might be affected	15 working days
Railway Safety and Corridor Management Act 1992	s17/18	Road owner and owner of other utility works that might be affected	15 working days from receipt